The granting of a licence is subject to a satisfactory medical report.

The Stewards wish to draw attention to the provisions of Rule 68. 3. In particular, the practice of betting on horse races run in Kenya by riders will not be tolerated. Any rider who may be proved, to the satisfaction of the Stewards, to have any interest in any racehorse, or to have been engaged, directly or indirectly, in any betting transaction, or otherwise to have disregarded this Rule, will have his licence at once withdrawn. Attention is also drawn to Rule 99. 1 which provides that no rider shall ride in any race unless he is wearing a skull cap of a pattern approved by the Stewards of Racing, and which is in a serviceable condition.
